Transportation Links

Buses*	School bus for some children who live outside of the village. There is no local bus service other than a community bus.
Rail*	No direct rail links to the school. The nearest station is in the centre of Oxford.
Roads*	Multiple routes leading to/from the village including from main roads such as the A420.
Walking Routes*	The school can be accessed by pedestrians. There are pavements leading to all areas of the village, sometimes there is a path on one side of the road only. As you lead out of the village the pavements end and then it's just road.
Cycling Routes*	The school can be accessed by cyclists using the local road routes.

Other Information

STARS Routes to School Audit

The STARS Routes to School Audit has been designed to assist schools with identifying the sustainable travel and transport network that surrounds the school site. The audit is a great activity to conduct with your pupils and will count as evidence towards the 'Consultation Initiatives' in your Action Plan.
